17 Matthew Llaneza presently is in custody on a charge of attempted use of a weapon of 18 mass destruction, 18 U.S.C. § 2332(a)(2)(B). The parties' first status conference took place on 19 11 April 2013. At that conference, defense counsel informed the Court that a large amount of 20 discovery had been produced and that the defense needed to review it and conduct an extensive 21 investigation, including numerous interviews of out-of-state witnesses. To date, defense counsel 22 has been unable to begin the interview process. The government has produced a significant 23 amount of additional discovery and is in the process of obtaining the necessary clearances to 24 produce discovery that defense counsel has requested but not yet received.

25 A status conference presently is scheduled for 16 May 2013. In light of the ongoing 26 activities described in the previous paragraph, the parties believe that a status conference would be more productive in June than in May. Accordingly, the parties respectfully recommend and request that the Court continue the status conference to 27 June 2013. Defense counsel will be out of the office during the weeks of 3 June and 10 June 2013. In addition, in light of the defense's ongoing investigation and discovery review process, the parties agree that the time between 16 May 2013 and 27 June 2013 should be excluded under the Speedy Trial Act for effective defense preparation as well as for continuity of defense counsel. 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv).

SO STIPULATED.

Good cause appearing therefor, IT IS ORDERED that this matter be continued to 27 June 2013 on the grounds set forth in the foregoing stipulation. The status conference date of 16 May 2013 is VACATED. For the reasons specified in the parties' stipulation, the time between 16 May 2013 and 27 June 2013 is excluded under the Speedy Trial Act for effective defense preparation as well as continuity of defense counsel. 18 U.S.C. §§ 3161(h)(7)(B)(iv). The Court finds that the ends of justice served by excluding this time outweighs the best interest of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Section 3161(h)(7)(A).
